1782 Black Line

UNIQUE BOLT MOVEMENT

The 1782 Black Line is characterized by deep black DLC (Diamond Like Carbon) coated components. With the Classic PRO stock made of beautiful walnut and the height-adjustable black comb, you get an elegant and timeless overall package that is rounded off with a robust driven hunt magazine. The breech case, the trigger blade and the bolt knob are DLC-coated. The DLC coating gives these components a surface with excellent sliding properties and incredible hardness. This combination makes these highly stressed system components robust and resistant, and at the same time gives the bolt movement its unique, silky smooth and brilliant characteristics!
